Speaker Biography:

Henry Burris is one of the most articulate speakers to play in the CFL. He now has a career in broadcasting for TSN TV and Radio. He is a frequent presenter across Canada.

His speaking style is humorous, entertaining and inspirational. He speaks on the subjects of leadership, teamwork, and accountability and often blends these subjects together. He always tailors his keynote presentations to meet and exceed audience needs, expectations and aspirations. He is well known for his contributions on and off the field.

Henry Burris was born Spiro, Oklahoma in June 1975. After breaking several State records as a quarterback, track star, baseball player and basketball player he was drafted into the CFL.

Burris has a distinguished career in both the CFL and NFL. In Canada, he played for the Calgary Stampeders, the Saskatchewan Roughriders, the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and the Ottawa Red Blacks where he led his team to a Grey cup in 2016.
