Life is simple. We make it complicated. Livin' Life Large®™: Simple Actions that Create Success is the most basic personal development book ever written using small-town Canadian wisdom.

Changing your life and getting the most out of every single moment of every single day is simple. That is the big secret of success life is simple. A successful life is not the life of a person who makes the most money or has the most possessions. It is the life of the person who is happy, a person who can balance working hard and playing hard and who remembers that at the end of the day the person who wins had the most fun.

Testimonials

“Tyler’s opening keynote presentation was great, his infectious enthusiasm and energy about leadership and mentoring filled the room and certainly set the tone for the rest of the conference. On behalf of the Conference Committee please pass on our heartfelt thanks to Tyler for his passion and for taking the time and extra effort to be totally in step with the conference theme and audience.”

-Conference Committee, Saskatchewan Emergency Planners Association

“Tyler presented exactly what he guaranteed. The session was informative, motivational and entertaining! Tyler wrapped up our conference with a bang! Participants left energized and motivated to set their own goals and to go out there and get them! Well done, thank you Tyler!”

-Manager, First Aid, Swimming & Water Safety, Canadian Red Cross

“I engaged Tyler to deliver a Team Building event one time when we were entering into a new strategic partnership with a client. Tyler developed and delivered a day long session. His planning is strategic in thought and detailed in delivery. The outcome could not have been more aligned with our desired results. Both our Team and the Client’s Team expressed that it was an enlightening experience. Combining desired business outcomes with humour and passion in its delivery, significantly reduced organizational barriers and allowed participants to accept that first we are humans. It really brought home that first we must find a common ground on a human level as this forms the cornerstone of any long-term strategic relationship. We will forever be grateful to Tyler for helping us achieve exceptional results in such a short period of time. I highly recommend Tyler for any Team Building event. The ROI will be exponential. Experience it for yourself.”

-Manager, Honeywell

“ Tyler’s 150% explosive energy is the first thing we enjoyed about him. Then he took the stage with his hilarious stories, heartfelt reminders of what is important in life, and his ability to inspire audience members and we loved him even more. Tyler made room in his schedule to contribute his professional stories to our post-secondary student session and offered an inspiring leadership based workshop. He also took the opportunity to remain at the conference and met staff, volunteers, and conference attendees, spreading his energy and enthusiasm with witty conversations and unique stories. We enjoyed Tyler’s contributions to our conference and would highly recommend him as a keynote speaker!”

-Executive Director, Recreation Connections Manitoba

“Feedback from the participants was glowing for both presentations. Light it Up was an exciting ice breaker for the crowd and really made sure participants met everyone at their table. Interestingly, I personally had even more feedback on Livin Life Large, where people seemed to really connect with the messages of “one little thing today”, “be a little outside of you comfort zone”, and “enthusiasm is caught, not taught.”
